RockPlates™ by Till Guitars

RockPlates are guitar shaped gift items that I make right alongside Till Guitars.

From the woodworking to the finish, the building processes are quite similar. I think you'll be very pleased with the look and feel of my work.

Like my guitars, I guarantee each RockPlate.

Credit Cards

I'm finding more and more ways to take your money, thank you. Of course, I accept cash and checks. But, for the plastically inclined, I gladly accept anything you can push through PayPal They take Visa and Mastercard for sure. Library cards? Not always. You can also purchase directly from my Etsy Store which is a great site for finding and selling handmade things.

Custom Orders

As with my guitars, custom orders are encouraged. Simply write to me with your ideas.
